Went to post at 3:55. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won in a center; second easily. Palmbearer readily outbroke, outraced and outstayed his field, could not be restrained back to the others and was easing up in the last quarter. Highball finished with a tremendous rush and is a good colt, particularly over a distance. Luxembourg, under a skillful and vigorous ride, ran in much improved form. Tim Payne broke flatfooted, then raced quickly up to the winner and went the first three furlongs head and head, but on sufferance.

Scretched—Gallant 115: 3293 Sir Carter 112

Winner—Br. h, by Pirate of Penzance—Right Wild (trained by J. Burns).

Went to post at 4:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily.

Wild Pirate, in great form, was lucky and well ridden, came through a narrow opening when straightened for home and, in a hot drive, outstayed Embarrassment. The latter, away poorly, moved up fast in the last half and finished very gamely. Bar Le Duc ranout on the stretch turn, yet readily disposed of the others. Kingraine lacked in early speed today. Stroller failed to stay. Star and Garter quit after going a good half.

Dr. Carrick was well handled and was best in the mud and simply ran away from the others. Countess Clara, allowed to fall out of it at the half mile, came again in the stretch and closed up with great gameness. Fon Spray displayed surprising improvement under a good ride. Crime ran a good race to the stretch, then quit. Flora Levy was going well 'at the end.

Went to post at 4:11. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Kindred broke with a tremendous burst of speed, quickly opening up a gap, easily kept the lead throughout and was going away at the end. Maltster was in the deep going next to have developed a liking for mud. She closed up a lot of ground and would have been second in another stride. Kaffir was cut off at the three-eighths and taken sharply back. This lost him ten lengths. Father Wentker, Helen Print and J. Sidney Walker do not like mud.

Went to post at 5:17. At post 4 minutes. Start good for all but Found. Won handily; second easily. W. B. Gates ran on the outside of his field to the stretch, avoiding the hot Allowance pace and mud and passed the field impressively in the stretch. Alice Turner ran in improved form under good handling, but tired when challenged by W. B. Gates in the last sixteenth. Tommy Hill showed improvement, but tired in the last furlong and Johnson was of no assistance to him. Caithness showed speed, but tired in the last furlong. Magnetic was probably short, but ran a fair race and is worth remembering. Frank McKee and Branch were off porly.

Andrattus was pinched off on the far turn and had to go around his field and came very fast in the stretch. Hie Away began slowly, but finished fast. With a stronger rider Kite would have made a better showing. Heather Bee is improving.
